For several days previous he had not been feeling as well as usual, but on Wednesday morning he seemed better and left his home about 8 o'clock to attend to some matters connected with his transfer business. He had already attended to several matters and about 8:30 a.m. while seated in front of the bank he was suddenly stricken and very soon lapsed into unconsciousness. Medical aid was at once summoned, but he never regained consciousness and about 2 p.m. he passed away.

Mr. James Alexander Kenney was born Dec. 7, 1860, died July 1, 1913, aged 52 years, 6 months and 25 days. His father died while James was but a child, his mother about five years ago. His death was the last of three brothers; David who preceded him almost 14 years ago, John who died 11 months ago.

His boyhood and early manhood were spend near Swanwick. About 18 years ago he with his family removed to Coulterville where he has ever since resided.

Mr. Kenney was an upright and conscientious Christian citizen, a business man of strictest integrity, a man who knew all men as a friend. In his early manhood he professed his faith in Christ, uniting with the Bethel congregation. After his removal to Coulterville he transferred his membership to the U.P. church of this place in which he remained a faithful and consistent member until his death. He was a regular and faithful attendant of the church services and on the Sabbath his place was nearly vacant.

He was married Oct 9, 1884, to Miss Annie Montgomery. To this union were born four children, one daughter and three sons, Mrs. A.G. Odom and Robert Kenney of St. Louis; Leonard Kenney and Claude Kenney of Coulterville.

The funeral services were conducted in the U.P. Church, Thursday, July 3rd at 3 p.m. Interment in Coulterville cemetery

!POETRY: Written by Maggie Josephine Kenney Fulton, after the death of her husband, Howard.
The clock of life is wound by once and no man has the power to tell when the hands will stop at late or early hour,
Now is the only time you own live love work with a will place no faith in tomorrow
the clock may then be still.

Dear Howard,
All to myself, I think of you
Think of the things we used to do
Think of the things we used to say
Sometimes I laugh
Sometimes I cry
but I keep each lonely thought all to myself.

OUR CHILDREN
All of our children have left us to live in a home of their own. They don't know how we miss them or how used to them we've grown. Maybe someday they'll have children to fill their hearts with joy--and later wjem tjeu've grown up they'll leave them for a girl or boy, then they'll know the heartaches you feel for many a day when at last you realize that your children have flown away. (Mother)

Written in 1929: A girl who once lived in our city was entirely too fast to be pretty she ate meats galore
and gained more and more,
till friends all said, what a pity!
Now this girl's name as Viola
she started in drink coca cola
and she got so thin
she lost her double chin
and friends hardly knew twas Viola.
So if you want to get thinner
and in beauty contests be a winner
just call 199
they'll deliver in time
for breakfast, luncheon, or dinner.

!MARRIAGE: Kenney-Stewart.
Mr. William A. Kenney and Miss Sadie Steward were married at the bride's mother's, Mrs. Tillie Steward, at noon on Wednesday, September 24, by Rev. J.C. Elliott, assisted by Rev. A.T. Hemphill. After the marriage ceremony, which was celebrated on the porch, the guests being assembled on the lawn in front of the house, and excellent dinner was served and much enjoyed by the guests--there being about forty present.
The officiating clergyman had married the groom's father and mother, and baptised both groom and bride in their infancy. I shall not attempt a description of the attire of the groom and bride, except to say that they wore neat and handsome costumes, very becoming for this happy occasion. There were many handsome and useful presents given by those present, consisting of such articles as will be employed in their every day life. A few were of an ornamental and decorative character for the parlor and mantle.
On Thursday a reception was given at the groom's father's home in Swanwick, where over fifty guests sat down to another excellent dinner. Here additional presents were given, and if the writer was not misinformed, there were only a few artices duplicated.
The newly married couple took the afternoon train to St. Louis, for a short wedding trip. Thus a new family has been started on life's journey with the best wishes and congratulations of their many friends. Their home will be in Swanwick, the groom have bought and furnished the neat and beautiful property recently occupied by Mr. Robert Smiley. --J.E.C.

M. McNeil, age 16, female, accompanied by E., H., J.
H. McNeil, age 14, female, accompanied by M., E., J.
J. McNeil, age 12, female, accompanied by E., M., H.
Possessions list 3 barrels and 4 boxes.
The ship was 242 tons, indicating a small ship- cargo was linen, whiskey, potatoes, 18 head of cattle and 6 sheep.
Only 11 names in the steerage, 3 of whom were "& family". There was 1 cabin passenger.

Lea wonders why they took such a small ship to New Orleans and in the dead of winter ???

Dear Mr Fulton:

Thank you for your interest in the Illinois Regional Archives Depository System (IRAD).

In response to your letter, we searched the Perry County naturalization records and were unfortunately unable to locate a record for Thomas McNeill (McNeal, McNeel, McNeil). We searched both the naturalization declarations of intent and the naturalization papers, without success.

As you can see from the enclosed Perry County listings, IRAD only carries Perry County probate up to 1858, and only carries probate will records up until 1843; hence, we would not carry a will for this individual from 1863. You may wish to contact the Perry County Clerk for information on these records. Their contact information is:

Subject: O'NEIL / WILLIAMS JENSON / BRAGG

Michael O'NEIL immigrated from Cork Co. Ireland around 1850-60. Served in Company "C" 5th Illinois Cavalry 1861-1864. Married Nancy Jane WILLIAMS 1883.
Lived in the Pinckneyville, Illinois area. Maybe farmer/cop? His son Lawrence Henry O'NEIL (my gfather) was a colorful Pecos, TX marshal.
Thomas JENSON and Margret (BRAGG) JENSON were from the Sutton Coldfield - Birmingham, England area and immigrated to Kansas around 1870-1873.
Anyone running across these names / places - I would really appreciate any info

JG>Do you have anything on William and Charity (BAGBY) WHITTINGTON who were JG>living in Calvert Co., MD in late 1600s?

John, I have WHITTINGTONs in my family from colonial era Maryland and Virginia to Amite County, Mississippi. I checked my family records and, although there have been many William WHITTINGTONs, the closest one I could find was William II in the following chart. However, I find no record of a BAGBY marriage.

1 - William WHITTINGTON II
Born - 1649/1650 Northampton Co., Virginia
Died - 1719/1720 Somerset County, Maryland
Note - William Whittington immigrated to Virginia with his parents as a "free" adult. He eventually made his home at "Choice", Coventry parish, Somerset County, Maryland.

William was Anglican by religious affiliation. By 1684 he was a planter and a merchant by trade; owned the ship "Hannah", which was seized by the French in 1703.

William served in the Lower House of Somerset County from 1692 to 1693, 1694 to 1695, and resigned before the 4th session of 1694 to 1697 Assembly to become Sheriff from 1699 to 1700. He served in the Assemblies of the Upper and Lower Houses until 1718; treasurer of the Eastern Shore, 1694 to 1695; Justice in the Provincial Court, 1701 to 1704; and Council, 1709 to 1717. He also served in several local offices to include: deputy surveyor, Somerset County, 1686/87; sheriff of Somerset County, 1689, 1695 to 1698, 1704 to 1706; Lord Baltimore's collector of the tax in Somerset County, 1691/92; Justice in Somerset County, 1694/95 to before 1701; Chief Justice by 1699/1700 to before 1701.

William Whittington was a Captain in the Militia by 1686; a Major by 1694; a Lt. Colonel by 1699; and a Colonel by 1705.

At some time during his life, William bequethed 400 acres for the care of the poor children in Somerset County, Maryland and Northampton County, Virginia.

William Whittington was a very welathy landowner, owning abiut 3100 acres of land in Somerset County, which later became Sussex County, Delaware and Worchester and Charles County, Maryland. Other land transactions by William (from 924 to 4750 acres) reveal that he owned major tracts of lands in what is now, Worchester, Wicomico, and Somerset Counties, Maryland, and Sussex County, Delaware.

According to Papenfuss in "Biographical Dictionary of the Maryland Legislature 1635-1789, William was the son of Mary or Susan, his father's first or second wives. M.M. Wilkinson says that Elizabeth Weston was the mother of William Whittington.

William was married five times. Esther or Hestor Littleton was his second wife.

sp(2)- Esther or Hester LITTLETON

Mar. - 1683 Northampton Co., Virginia
Dau of Nathaniel LITTLETON & Ann SOUTHEY

Note - According to Papenfuss in "Biographical Dictionary of the Maryland Legislature", Esther's father was Southy Littleton. This was probably a brother instead because Papenfuss gives his birth dates as 1645.

2 - William WHITTINGTON III
Born - 1681/1683 Somerset County, Maryland
Died - 1756 Accomack County, Virginia
Note - William Whittington was a planter by trade. He served in the Lower House of Somerset County, Maryland from 1712 to 1714, from 1716 to 1718, and from 1722 to 1724. He also served as a Justice in the County from 1713 to 1724/25.

He was a wealthy landowner owning 1200 acres in Somerset County (now Worchester County) in 1712. This land he had inherited from his mother.

Several other land transactions are noted for William in Somerset County, Maryland and Accomack County, Virginia.

William's will was probated May 26, 1756 probably in Accomack County, Virginia because he had gone to live there on a 400-acre tract of land called, "Ockohonson".

There was also a William WHITTINGTON who signed a declaration in Calvert County to England proclaiming their loyalty William and Mary and justifying the military action they had taken to seize control of the Provincial Government. This declaration was signed on August 20, 1689. I also find reference to a "widow" WHITTINGTON recorded as a having 2 slaves on a list of "taxables" by a William HICKMAN of Lyon's Creek of Calvert County. Lyon's Creek separates Calvert County and Anne Arundel County, MD. These two pieces of information are taken from "A History of Calvert County", 1960, by Charles Francis STEEN. The relationship of the William who signed the "declaration" to those in my chart is unknown.

I also looked through the records that Maleta CHILDS of this echo had sent to me in the past and could find no reference to WHITTINGTONs of Calvert County, MD. Sorry that I could not help more.

JH>Tim - the following is from Boddie's book.
JH>WHITTINGTON

Tim, I saw Jackie HORTON's message to you and have to ask.....Are you researching the WHITTINGTON family? If so I may be able to help. I had sent you a message on 8-1 but had not seen a reply. Without looking at my family data, I recognize some of the names in Jackie's message regarding the BODDIE book as names which also occur in my families which were in MD, VA, and MS. Any interest?

MM> No, I have a Mary McNeal who married Obediah Holmes 12 Nov 1857 in MM> Coshocton Co. OH.

Hmmmm. Marty, I can't place her. Thought I might, but of the two Marys McNEAL in my files, neither was born in OH that I know of. The one whose family moved to OH married a Daniel PARCHER in 1845. The other's father Archibald McNEAL died in Huntingdon Co., PA, in 1871, so it is doubtful his daughter Mary E. McNEAL (b. 1834 in PA) would have wandered off to OH to marry, though this Mary was about the right age and I don't yet know whom she married.

FYI, the family I have some information about descends from a James (d. 1838) & Mary (CRUICKSHANK) McNEAL of County Down, IRE, who settled in Tell Twp, now Huntingdon Co., PA, in abt 1770+. Their son Robert was my gggg grandfather. His youngest brother Alexander McNEAL m. Jane GOOSEHORN. Jane was a younger sister of my ggg grandfather George GOOSHORN. Alexander and Jane went to OH where Alexander died in Bucyrus in 1873. Their daughter Mary McNEAL (b. 1824) was the one who married Daniel PARCHER. Archibald was Alexander's next older brother. Much of my informtion on these is from 1850 census and there were no other available Marys McNEAL than those I've mentioned. I think I struck out. Sorry.

Subj: NEALL/NEALE - Ireland/Scotland

Stephen (Steven) NEALL (NEALE) and wife Margaret came from Ireland to settle around a Beaver Pond in Amelia Co., VA in 1730. He joined his children Roger, Stephen Jr., and Ann who had preceded them in 1718. Other children who apparently came with Stephen & Margaret were: Thomas, John, & David. Together, they were known as the Beaver Pond NEALS.

Does any one have any information on the origin of the family in Ireland and who Stephen's siblings and Ancestor's are?
I have been told that the name NEALL/NEALE may be of the Gaelic (Scottish) origin of the same form or MacNEALE or Mac NEILL.

Does anyone know where I might obtain a copy of the publication "The Beaver Pond Neals" by Carl B. NEAL?

Subj: MCNEILL of NC

DC)Am looking for information on the parents and family of David F.
DC)WEBB. He was supposedly born in Selbyville, Ky. in 1810 and DC)eventually migrated to Texas along with his brother Felix M. WEBB.
DC)Felix became mayor of Victoria, Texas in 1850. David participated in DC)the Texas Revolution and married Nancy MCNEILL, dau. of NEILL DC)MCNEILL. Nancy was born in NC. David and Nancy live and died in DC)Wilson County, Texas, 1893 and 1892, respectively.

David, I realize that MCNEILLs in NC are numerous and the men were all named one of five or six first names (G) but the name Neill McNEILL certainly reminds me of the area of Moore County, NC. My great great grandmother was Lydia McNEILL, daughter of Archibald and granddaughter of a Daniel McNEILL of Moore County. Lydia's son, Dr. Edwards Moore KENNEDY went to TX. Supposedly, Archibald McNEILL was the Congressman Archibald McNEILL who is recorded in the Congressional biographies as having gone the Republic of TX and eventuallly died in a dust storm in the AZ Territory about 1849 while leading a party of gold seekers to the gold fields of California.

I have a book called, "The McNEILL's Ferry Chronicle and CAMPBELL University" by Everitt McNEILL KIVITT that shows a Neil McNEILL (d. Mar 30, 1830) who married Grissella STEWART and was the son of an Archibald and "Jennie Bhan" SMITH McNEILL. The brothers of this Neil consisted of the other few first names which seem to dominate NC male McNEILLs; Malcolm, John, Daniel, Hector, and Archibald. Have you ever seen this book? The ferry was I believe in Harnett County.
